

Pearse Lyons Marriage of Malt Distillery Edition - Ierland

An intriguing blended malt whiskey from Dublin's Pearse Lyons, made with a selection of malt whiskeys, including some which have been drawn from Pedro Ximénez casks. Bottled up at 44% ABV, with 888 bottles produced, this expression boasts a hefty helping of warming fruit richness alongside toasty spices and runny caramel.

It very much follows in the flavour footprints of our previously released 5-year single malt but with a new level of complexity. The use of rich PX Sherry casks in tandem with the inclusion of older sourced malt makes this a deliciously complex sipping whiskey.

Proefnotitie

Tasting Marriage of Malt. Some whiskeys benefit from a drop of water to open them up and reveal their full potential, this whiskey benefits from allowing it to breathe and open up to reveal its spectrum of flavour.

Nose:

Rich malt, zingy citrus with a crisp minerality, lemon biscuit, fleshy fruit, fresh shaved wood, dry spice, vanilla, sweet apricot, caramelised pear, candied fruit.

Palate:

Rich, silky, maltiness, crisp fresh citrus, candied fruit, rich round toasted oak, vanilla custard, light pepperiness, warming clove spice, butterscotch, figs, candied apple, dates, stewed fruit with long lingering rich sweetness and spice.
