Allt a Bhainne Milroy's 27 yrs

- Schotland

Rarely seen as a stand-alone single malt release, Speyside's Allt-a-Bhainne distillery has traditionally been used for blends. This bottling, which draws from mid-90s stocks renowned for its fruit-forward, distillate driven character, is a real treat. It's an elegant addition to our Vintage Reserve collection, which celebrates traditional-style releases that hero distillery character.
